

Membership Benefits

EDUCATIONAL SYMPOSIUMS, WORKSHOPS AND MEMBRANE OPERATOR CERTIFICATION (MOC) SHORT SCHOOLS

- SEDA conducts seminars, symposiums, technical workshops, membrane operator certification (MOC) short schools in the Southeastern United States. Sessions focus on operational and maintenance issues, regulation updates, management issues, membrane technology, case studies and histories and other important topics.
- SEDA members receive discounted rates to attend any SEDA Symposiums, Workshops, MOC's and other Co-Sponsored Events
- SEDA members receive discounted rates to attend any of the events sponsored by its affiliate - American Membrane Technology Association (AMTA)

PUBLICATIONS AND NETWORKING

- SEDA members receive a quarterly publication "Recovery Zone", which is mailed and provides up-to-date information on operations and maintenance items for membrane facilities, regulations matters, new projects, activities and other items of interest in the desalting industry
- SEDA provides a platform for discussion on its website for membrane operators

ELECTIONS

- SEDA members are eligible to run for the SEDA Board
- SEDA members are eligible to vote in all SEDA elections

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP DIRECTORY

- SEDA publishes an Annual Membership Directory, which serves as a usual reference

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS FOR DIVISION 1A and 2A or 2B MEMBERS

- To attract people interested in the membrane technology to the member company, SEDA will provide a link from SEDA's website to the company's website.
- Division 1A will receive additional affiliate members with their membership renewal. The designated Division 1 primary member will have discretion upon application and each year at renewal to designate who will receive the additional Division 1B, 1C or 3B affiliate memberships that are included with their Primary membership. Each Division 1A will receive a total of 6 memberships, 1 primary and 5 additional members.
- Division 2A members are able to have up to five additional employees of the organization register at a SEDA or AMTA event at the member rate.
- Division 2B members are able to have up to two additional employees of the organization register at a SEDA or AMTA event at the member rate.

Membership Benefits

✓ Division I Membership

Who qualifies? Public Agencies, Industrial Users and Water Suppliers to End Users; Water and Wastewater Operators

What does the A, B and C part mean?

Division 1A = Public Agencies, Industrial Users and Water Suppliers to End Users

Division 1B = Certified Water Operator

Division 1C = Certified Wastewater Operator

What are the special benefits for this division membership?

- Recognition in the Annual Membership Directory
- Eligible to run for the SEDA Board
- Eligible to vote in all SEDA Elections
- Reduced rates for SEDA and AMTA sponsored events
- Receive all Publications
- Division 1A memberships include 6 members, 1 primary member and 5 additional members with their membership renewal. The designated Division 1A primary member will have discretion upon application and each year at renewal to designate who will receive the additional Division 1B, 1C or 3B memberships that are included with their Primary membership.

✓ Division II Membership

Who qualifies? Manufacturers, Suppliers and Consulting Firms/Engineers/Architects

What does the A or B part mean?

Division 2A = Large Companies (5 employees or more)

Division 2B = Small Companies (fewer than 5 employees)

What are the special benefits for this division membership?

- Organization recognition in the Annual Membership Directory
- Eligible to run for the SEDA Board
- Eligible to vote in all SEDA Elections
- Receive all Publications
- Discounted rates on SEDA publications, advertising, sponsorship and tradeshow exhibit opportunities
- SEDA will provide a link from SEDA's website to the company's website
- Division 2A – the Primary Member and up to 5 additional employees may receive the reduced rates for SEDA or AMTA sponsored events (these additional employees are not considered members)
- Division 2B – the Primary Member and up to 2 additional employees may receive the reduced rates for SEDA or AMTA sponsored events (these additional employees are not considered members)

✓ Division III Membership

Who qualifies? Individuals, University/College Professors, Libraries, Students, and Individual Affiliates

What does the A, B or C division mean?

Division 3A = Individuals and University/College Professors

Division 3B = Individuals affiliated with a paid Division 1A Member who is a non-certified operator

Division 3C = Individuals affiliated with a paid Division 2A or 2B Member

What are the special benefits for this division membership?

- Recognition in the Annual Membership Directory
- Eligible to run for the SEDA Board
- Eligible to vote in all SEDA Elections
- Receive all Publications

What are the limits to this division membership?

- No organization recognition in the Annual Membership Directory for 3A Individual members
- Discounted rates for SEDA or AMTA sponsored events and SEDA publications are for individual member only
- Individuals are not eligible to sponsor or exhibit at a SEDA or AMTA sponsored events
- Membership for Division 3A is non-transferrable